Fr Brentnall

If anyone is able to bake cakes for the reception, please let me know – Anne Walsh on annew505@gmail.com or tel 07980 568261. Thank you.

Second Collection: This weekend, 10 July, there is a second collection for the Apostleship of the Sea “Stella Maris”.

Prayer of Protection:

Holy Michael the Archangel defend us in this day of battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do you, Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen

St Benedict: (c.480-c.547) was born in Norcia (Italy) and was educated in Rome. Turning his back on the worldliness he encountered there, he retired to live as a hermit in a cave near Subiaco. His fame spread and disciples began to join him, whom he organized into twelve small monasteries. He eventually moved to Montecassino, where he founded the famous abbey, and produced his Rule, drawing on the monastic wisdom of the Christian East as well as earlier Western Rules (notably the Regula Magistri) and his own practical experience. He was proclaimed patron of Europe by Pope Paul VI because of his essential influence in the formation of Christendom.

St Bonaventure: (1221-1274) was born at Bagnorea (Bagnoregio), near Viterbo (Italy) and entered the Franciscan Order. A friend of St Thomas Aquinas, he taught at the University of Paris and became Minister General of the Franciscan Order. He was chosen as Archbishop of York (England) in 1265 but never consecrated. He was eventually created Cardinal Bishop of Albano and died during the Council of Lyons. Remembered chiefly for his philosophical and theological works, he is known as the ‘Seraphic Doctor.’
