Dear Parishioners,

We are continuing to celebrate Masses in the church, as permitted by the Government, on Sundays at 9.00am and 11.00am and on weekdays as announced in the news sheet; please continue to observe the pre-existing rules and, in addition, to not congregate outside church 'for a chat' but return home. We will all be able to have a great chat after we have all had our vaccinations, the sun is shining, and we can sing again.

God Bless Fr Brentnall

THERE IS STILL NO OBLIGATION UPON YOU TO ATTEND MASS

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

If you cannot attend daily Mass, you can use this prayer to express your faith in Christ and His Presence in the Eucharist, and ask Him to unite Himself with us.

First Holy Communion: Application forms are available at the back of Church. Please take one also for family and friends who are not attending Mass at the moment. They will also be available in School. Classes begin on Saturday 5 June for 4 weeks. 1st Holy Communion will take place on Sunday 4 July.

Second Collection today Sunday 6 June

They are praying for you! On the Feast of the Sacred Heart, ACN's project partners around the world will be offering prayers and Masses for all those who help suffering Christians through Aid to the Church in Need benefactors, including UK parishes, groups, schools and individual supporters.

Mr Neville Kyrke-Smith, national Director of ACN in England and Wales has asked that this message of the gift of prayer and friendship from ACN brothers and sisters be shared with parish communities. He continues:

This spiritual outpouring of love is in grateful thanks for the compassionate generosity of all who have supported the Body of Christ worldwide over so many years and, especially during the pandemic. Despite their own struggles during the last year, the generosity of the Catholic community in supporting suffering and persecuted families has been unparalleled. Do you have any Wrens in your family?

I'm not referring to the tiny, feathered variety in the garden but the indomitable ladies who joined the Women's Royal Naval Service. Specifically, ladies who joined up between 1946 and 1981 and did their basic training at Training Depot Burghfield/HMTE Burghfield/HMTE Dauntless/HMS Dauntless/Reading.

Dauntless Divisional Photos is a worldwide project, in collaboration with the Association of Wrens, to gather divisional photographs and memories from those training days but also to reunite ladies with old friends, share anecdotes and relive exciting moments.

So if you, your mum, granny, aunt, godmother or even next door neighbour donned a blue suit and aimed for a life on the ocean wave, please get in touch on either ddpwrens@gmail.com or telephone 07765 435295/0771 990 9844.

Word and the Common Good: You are invited to join Catholics from around the Diocese of Nottingham for an interactive online course over six Monday evenings in June and July. As life starts afresh after lockdown, it's a rare opportunity to sow seeds of the Gospel.

- Discover how Scripture and Catholic Social Teaching can help us seize this moment and build a society that reflects God's Kingdom
- Build bridges following a year of social distancing and foster a new 'culture of encounter'
- Form new friendships, renew old ones, and help to build our parish communities for mission.

The sessions begin on Monday 7 June at 7.00 p.m. for six weeks – come to as many as you are available for.
