SVP – Sudan:

South Sudan gained independence in 2011 and has since struggled with economic, political, and social instability. UNICEF estimated in August 2023 that 1.4 million children under the age of 5 were suffering from acute malnutrition and 7.1 million people currently face severe food insecurity. The conflict and migration of displaced people from Sudan since April 2023 has only exacerbated the already dire situation.

More support is needed.

As inflation soars, costs grow, and demand increases, SVDP South Sudan need your help to ensure their projects can continue.

Prayer to St Michael:

'St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.'

'Lord God, protect us from the snares and schemes of the Evil One. I call upon the power of your name, cross and blood that I may live more and more in your presence.'

Ss Simon & Jude, Apostles (Feast) – 28 October:

St Simon (first century) is usually called 'the Canaanite' and 'the Zealot', suggesting he belonged to the Jewish party of the 'Zealous of the Law'. St Jude or Thaddeus (first century) has a short epistle in the New Testament ascribed to him, and is popularly invoked as the patron of hopeless causes.

Tradition says that after Pentecost they evangelized, Simon in Egypt, Jude in Mesopotamia, and then together in Persia, where they were martyred. Their names appear in the Roman Canon.

All Saints (Solemnity) Holy Day of Obligation – 1 November:

The Solemnity of All Saints celebrates all those who are in Heaven, in the light of God's face – both those recognized by the Church as saints and those known only to the Lord. We ask for their intercession and we strive to follow their example, so that we too can fulfill our vocation to be saints.

Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day) – 2 November:

Today we renew the hope in eternal life, truly founded on Christ's death and Resurrection. "I am risen and I am with you always", the Lord tells us, "and my hand supports you. Wherever you may fall, you will fall into my hands and I will be there even to the gates of death. Where no one can accompany you any longer and where you can take nothing with you, there I will wait for you to transform for you, the darkness into light." Christian hope, however, is not solely individual, it is also always a hope for others. Our lives are profoundly linked, one to the other, and the good and the bad that each of us does always affects others too. Hence, the prayer of a pilgrim soul in the world can help another soul that is being purified after death. This is why the Church invites us today to pray for our beloved deceased and to pause at their tombs in the cemeteries.
